Safety Award Nomination Forms

Click on the award to fill out the nomination form.
Deadline: December 1
Awards seeking nominations:

1. Truck Driver Safety Excellence
2. Continuing Excellence
3. Distinguished Safety Act
4. Project Safety
5. Safety Achievement

Submit form to dan@agcwyo.org
Questions call 307.632.0573

Back to page 1

Truck Driver Safety Excellence Award
Nomination Form

The purpose of the AGC of Wyoming Truck Driver Safety Excellence Award is to recognize professional drivers who display the highest degree of professionalism, safety and courtesy in performing their jobs. The nominee must have at least two violation/accident-free years with the company, be an AGC of Wyoming member employee, and the AGC of Wyoming member company must participate in the WCA Safety Tabulation Program.

Nominee:

Person & Company submitting application:

Telephone:

E-mail address:

Nominee Years of Commercial Driving:

Please explain in detail why this nominee should receive the AGC of Wyoming Truck Driver Safety Excellence Award:

Back to page 1

Continuing Excellence Award

Nomination Form

The AGC of Wyoming Continuing Excellence Award highlights a company who has had a zero-incident rate for 2 or more years in a row. The nominee must demonstrate a safety commitment from management, active employee participation, safety training, work site hazard identification control, and safety program innovation. Additionally, the nominee must be an AGC of Wyoming member and their company must participate in the AGC of Wyoming Safety Tabulation Program.

Nominee(s):

Person & Company submitting application:

Telephone:

E-mail address:

Number of years with a zero-incident rate:

Please explain in detail why the nominee should receive the AGC of Wyoming Continuing Excellence Award:

Back to page 1

Distinguished Safety Act Award

Nomination Form

The purpose of the AGC of Wyoming Distinguished Safety Act Award is to recognize a person or group of persons (unit, crew, etc.) who strive to support, enhance and implement safety in their work environment in a means that goes beyond the requirements of their position. Nomination may include actions that promote safe behavior, a safe environment, a strong safety culture; or report unsafe work conditions, resolve unsafe work conditions, or demonstrate proactive safety initiatives. Nominee(s) must be an AGC of Wyoming member's employee(s) and their company must participate in the AGC of Wyoming Safety Tabulation Program.

Nominee(s):

Person & Company submitting application:

Telephone:

E-mail address:

Please explain in detail why the nominee(s) should receive the AGC of Wyoming Distinguished Safety Act Award:

Back to page 1

Project Safety Award
Nomination Form

The purpose of the AGC of Wyoming Project Safety Award is to recognize those professionals who bring collaboration and creativity to managing safety throughout an entire project. This award is for a specific project and includes the prime and subcontractors.

Person & Company submitting application:

Telephone: E-mail address:

Project Name:

Project Owner:

Project Completion Date:

Prime Contractor:

Subcontractors:

Please explain in detail the safety collaboration process between the prime and subcontractors:

Back to page 1

Safety Achievement Award

Nomination Form

The purpose of the AGC of Wyoming Safety Achievement Award is to recognize an AGC of Wyoming member company who has dramatically improved their safety record (incident rate) in a one-year period. Backup documentation (OSHA Form 300A) must be submitted with the nomination form as well as detailed information on what steps have been taken to achieve the lower incident rate. Nominee must be an AGC of Wyoming member company and must participate in the AGC of Wyoming Safety Tabulation Program.

Nominee:

Person & Company submitting application:

Telephone:

E-mail address:

Please explain in detail the steps taken to improve your company's incident rate in the one-year time period: